

MC009: Computation and Society

Prerequisite: None

Description:

Ethical problems involving the use of Information Technology. Multidisciplinary opportunities for the use of Computation – research, development and employability. Market trends and globalization – cooperative projects, gender issues and distance work. Computing and the university (UNICAMP) – needs and opportunities. Informatics' political aspects in Brazil and worldwide.

Recommended Literature: None